

Funding your Short Term Accommodation and Assistance Services

Requesting funds in your NDIS plan to achieve your goals

About Short Term Accommodation Services (Respite)

We are passionate about providing high quality support that is tailored to individual needs. We pride ourselves on seeing the person first and want to support you to achieve your goals.

Locations

We have 10 short term accommodation homes across Victoria for both adults and children.

Short term accommodation can assist you to:

- reach your goals
- learn new skills
- develop more independence
- create friendships
- have exciting new experiences

We can help you with:

- personal care tasks
- cooking and meal-time assistance
- health needs and medication
- mobility
- many other individualised support needs

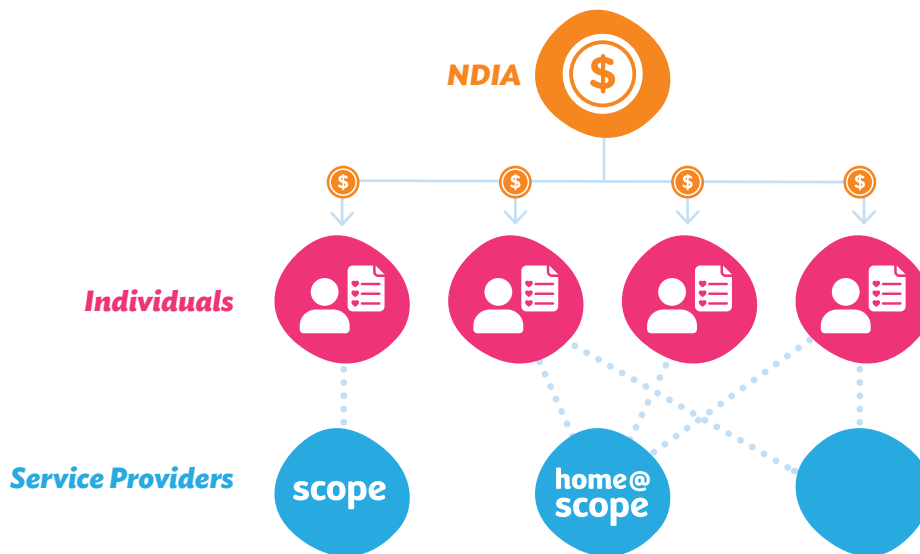

Understanding the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)

The NDIS funds reasonable and necessary supports to meet your goals. STAA can support you to achieve your goals. To access STAA you will need to have funds allocated in your NDIS plan. To find more out about the NDIS visit their website: www.ndis.gov.au

NDIS Funding

Short Term Accommodation and Assistance, which used to be called Respite needs to be funded through the Core Support sections of your NDIS plan.

How to get the right funding

Your planning meeting is important.

Make sure you:

- take the quote for short term accommodation services, which we can provide, to your NDIS planning meeting. (contact us if you need a revised quote).
- talk to your NDIS planner about your goals.
- tell your planner how accessing STAA will assist you to achieve your goals.
- ask for the funding to be part of your Core Supports in your NDIS plan.

Short term accommodation can provide you with:

- the opportunity to increase your social and community participation goals
- the support to develop your daily living skills and independence.

What are your goals?

- ✓ Becoming more independent
- ✓ Practice day-to-day living skills
- ✓ Developing better social skills

Quotes explained

A quote is created based on your individual support needs.

It outlines:

- how much short term accommodation funding to include in your NDIS plan
- how many nights you can stay
- the cost for weekends, weekdays or public holidays

We quote in line with the NDIS price guide and include the right amount of support required for you to have a safe and enjoyable stay.

Booking Process

The booking process takes place every three months. If you have any questions please contact the STAA Centralised Booking Coordination Team.
